Introducing...
The Bike Temple

The Bike Temple is a non-profit, pan-faith movement that seeks to heal the world by having fun and deepening people's relationship with their venerated transportation form. We are a community of bicycle believers, welcoming devotees and divinity doubters alike.

So... you worship bicycles?

Some do. Some worship more conventional deities. Some simply don't. The Bike Temple believes that you should be free to worship whatever and whomever you please.

It is our goal to take the best parts of religion, like social service, community involvement, events, and neighborhood organization, and relate them to the bicycle in ways never done before. Our programs and services are designed to introduce religion and cycling in hopes that they play nicely together.

There's a church for that!

The Bike Temple is pleased to announce the opening of it's first physical location.

The Bike Temple
at the Lotus Seed Ashram
NE 9th and Going Portland, OR

Basic Shop repair and advice available to the public. Donations gladly accepted but not required.

Open Every Wednesday
6:00pm-8:30pm
